We Have a Winner!

Actually, we have three winners! Congratulations to

Betty Parker and Vicki Rogers

whose names were drawn for the afghans, and to

Lindsay Boone

whose name was drawn for the Indiana Keepsake box.

Thanks to all who participated!

"The president of the United States...is missing."

With these words, New York Times journalist J. B. Collins, reporting from the scene of a devastating attack by ISIS terrorists in Amman, Jordan, puts the entire world on high alert. The leaders of Israel and Palestine are critically injured, Jordan's king is fighting for his life, and the U.S. president is missing and presumed captured.

As the U.S. government faces a constitutional crisis and Jordan battles for its very existence, Collins must do his best to keep the world informed while working to convince the FBI that his stories are not responsible for the terror attack on the Jordanian capital. And ISIS still has chemical weapons...

Struggling to clear his name, Collins and the Secret Service try frantically to locate and rescue the leader of the free world before ISIS's threats become a catastrophic reality.

Join the Friends as they discuss The First Hostage by Joel Rosenberg in the meeting room on November 30, 2016 at 5:00.

Library Board Meetings

take place in the Becky Musser Meeting Room at the library unless stated otherwise. Library Board Meetings are open to the public. Next meeting is November 16, 2016 @ 5 p.m.

Teen Art Club

We'll supply the tools, you create the art – your way! The Teen Art Club is free of charge and all materials are provided. Some crafts may involve using hot glue guns or sharp blades, so attendance is limited to grades 9 - 12 only.

Pictured are the three winners of our book character pumpkin decorating contest. Congratulations to Blakely Smith, Jenna Dent, and Ruth Shriner! All of the pumpkins were so creative that it was hard for our judges to make a decision! Thanks to all who participated. We hope you had as much fun creating as we did seeing all of your creations.
