Bicentennial Series Speaker Barbara Morrow

Hardwood Glory: A Life of John Wooden

Hartford City Public Library continues to celebrate the Indiana Bicentennial in 2016 by welcoming Barbara Morrow, an Indiana author hailing from Auburn, to the library to talk about her new book on Tuesday, September 27 at 7 p.m. in the Becky Musser Meeting Room. John Wooden is one of Indiana's most famous and successful basketball experts, and indeed a coach of life.

The Blackford County Historical Society joins the Friends of the Library in sponsoring and hosting this evening with Ms. Morrow as the third speaker in the Bicentennial Series. The event is free and open to the public.

John Wooden Quotes

- Don't mistake activity for achievement.

- If you don't have time to do it right, when will you have time to do it over?

- Success is never final, failure is never fatal. It's courage that counts.

- If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, you need a team.

- Things turn out best for the people who make the best of the way things turn out.

- Success is peace of mind attained only through self-satisfaction and knowing you've made the effort. Do the best of what you're capable.

- Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are.
